NOTES:

1. Margaret Kinish married William MACYLEREA February, 1690 in Braddan. And Margaret Kenish married a Patrick Gelling in June, 1700 in Braddan. She must have married three times although no record of the third marriage to Daniel Cain.
 - John Mallereah born 1691, Braddan. Father William. No record of an Ann being born.
 - Jane Gelling born 1700 to Pat; Paul Gellin born 1703, son of Patrick; Hester Gelling born 1706 to Pat
2. Patrick Gelling died 1708. Mentions 3 step children and his own including Elizabeth who had died by the time Margaret had died (maybe 1728?). Also one more of William's children had survived until 1708 (Margaret or Ellin) but died by the time their mother Margaret had gone.
1708 A 47 GELLING Patrick dated 6 sep 1708; 3 unnamed stepch; 4 own ch paul, jane, esther + elizth all ua uncle robt nowe; wife alive
3. Will of daughter Ann McYlrea who died in 1738 nominates her brother Paul and sisters Jane and Esther Gelling; also brother Hugh Cain. Most likely, Hugh was the son of Daniel Cain, and born before Daniel's marriage to Margaret, widow of William Maclereah.
1744-3 E d CAINE Hugh - departed island 10 yrs ago no certain acct; s/o Daniel Caine late Douglas; father left him certain houses etc which in case of his non-return pass to relations Esther Gelling (w/o John) + Cath Kneal als Caine - they to pay £4 to his kinsman Thos Caine Ballaugh
4. Esther Gelling's will and Patrick Gelling's will at http://www.iomfhs.im/lawsons/LawsonBMD/Main_Site_index.html
5. The "praizer" of Margaret's inventory named Thomas McYlrea might be a relative of her first husband, William, who died in 1699. Could he be the same Thomas Mylrea who was a signatory to the Court papers associated with the will of Margaret Mylrea als Clague who died 1724 in Braddan?
